BAR 'LE GOUVERNEUR' Oozes ELEGANCE

When visiting the former Imperial city of Hue, Vietnam, one expects crumbling citadels, peaceful pagodas and picturesque streets; one does not expect to find a well-preserved sanctum to the glorious art-deco years, stocked with first-rate spirits and Cuban cigars. Oozing with 1920s elegance, Bar 'Le Gouverneur' at La Residence Hotel and Spa greets visitors with refreshing airiness and comfy, red-cushioned armchairs crafted from dark wood in the Vietnamese style.

Natural light pours into the crescent-shaped space from floor-to-ceiling windows, opening up enticing views of the resort's tropical gardens and the Perfume River. When evening arrives, tall lamps and subtle lighting cast Le Gouverneur's curved polished-wood bar and lofty ceilings (where its extraordinary mural by French artist Roland Renaud arcs across the room) in an inviting glow. French-colonial style doors open onto a raised terrace with tables overlooking the illuminated gardens. The sounds of a last boat motoring down the river and the calls of wild birds filter through to guests sipping sundowners in the evening air.

B28 - WHISKY & JAZZ TO ITS CORE

B28 was stocked with an initial portfolio of 100 single cask, single malt Scotch whiskies as well as Mike Soldner's personal selection of some of the best distillery releases. Mike's aim is not only to create one of the best whisky bars in Singapore, but one of the best bars in the city.
